

How Well Are You Leading Your Small Business?

presented by

Donna Marie Johnson, CEO of GGene S.I.S., LLC

Tuesday, January 8, 2019

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

at the Fayette County Public Library

In small business, you become a leader as soon as you start selling your products or services, but many of us start feeling overwhelmed and/or unsure as we start to grow.

Small business owners are invited to attend this FREE program.

- Understand how to assess and improve your own leadership, for a positive impact on your confidence, your effectiveness, and your profit growth.
- Improve the foundations of your existing small business by using the correct structure

A brief question and answer session on business and leadership topics will follow the presentation.

Make business better: understand better, lead better & make more money
